

Buff Meets Wayne Saturday

Marvin Appoints Lewis Fourth Hatchet Editor

• APPROVAL of Mervin Lewis as fourth member of the 1946-47 Hatchet Board of Editors was made known yesterday by President Cloyd Heck Marvin and Chairman C. D. Linton of the Committee on Publications.

The other three members of the editorial board, as appointed last May, include Nancy Hanck, Dorothy Henry, and Rusty Schiff, Business Manager.

In addition to his duties as member of The Hatchet Board of Editors, Mr. Lewis will continue to supervise sports writing until the Sports Editor vacancy on the sub-editorial board is filled.

Now a senior, Mr. Lewis served as sports reporter for The Hatchet from 1942 to 1944 and during 1944-45 held the post of Sports Editor. In May, 1945, he was recommended for the 1945-46 Board of Editors, but entered the Navy shortly thereafter. Last May the outgoing Board of Editors again recommended his appointment to the Board, should he return from service in time for the academic year.

MERVIN LEWIS

No commitment was made, however, and the appointment was held pending. After Mr. Lewis returned to the University in July, a third recommendation was submitted to the Committee on Publications and approved this week.

The editorial board has announced additions to the staff. Sybella Clayton, former Assistant Features Editor, has been appointed Copy Editor and Jack Donaldson has been selected as Advertising Manager. The position of Sports Editor has been left vacant with the resignation of Chet McCall, who is now in the Army.

As announced last spring, Jim Pughe will serve as News Editor; Jeannette Raynor, Society Editor; Ray Glasscock, Features Editor; Gene Paternoster, Circulation Manager, and Dino Brugioni, Staff Artist.

Pianist Effenbach To Play at Lisner

• HAVING RECENTLY finished a successful piano concert tour of the West Coast, Miss Leah Effenbach will return to Washington tomorrow to appear in Lisner Auditorium at 8:40 p.m.

Miss Effenbach, a graduate of Eastern High School, has received her musical training at Peabody Conservatory and at Juilliard Graduate School of Music. Her program will include the Beethoven Sonata, Opus 57 or the Appassionata, seven Chopin etudes, and the Brahms A Major Intermezzo. During the past year she made a USO tour of American bases in the South Pacific, where her performances were highly acclaimed.

Tickets for the concert are on sale at the Lisner Auditorium box office and at Kitt's Music Store, 1330 G St., N. W., for $1.20, $2.40 and $3.00.

University Sets Record of 240 At Graduation

• DEGREES WERE conferred upon 240 students at the largest fall convocation in the history of the University, last Tuesday in Lisner Auditorium.

Ninety-six students received Associate in Arts degrees from the Junior College. Of the remaining number, thirty-seven received degrees in the School of Education, twenty-four in the School of Law, nineteen in the School of Government, sixty-four in the Columbian College and two in the School of Engineering. The School of Pharmacy is bestowing degrees upon two nuns, Sister M. M. Raphael Devane and Sister M. Jane Francis Heaton. Philip I. Herzbrun, candidate for the Bachelor of Arts Degree in Columbian College, graduated with distinction and Special Honors in English. He is now a member of the staff of the English Department of the University. Mary Margaret Wilbur and Edith Stephens Woodward, also candidates for the Bachelor of Arts Degree in the Columbian College, graduated with distinction.

Speakers at the Convocation were Dr. Cloyd Heck Marvin, president of the University; the Reverend Dr. Fred Sherman Buschmeyer, pastor of the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church, and Dean Elmer Louis Kayser, Marshal of the University. An orchestra under the direction of Leon Brusiloff played selections by Dvorak, Ravel, Debussy, Savino and Gounod.

The degrees awarded are as follows:

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE

Master of Arts

Natalie Norwood Hodgson, Ivonne Laestre, Joseph Mantell Lightman, Mary Ann Moffett

Master of Science

Frank Bryan Tutwiler

Bachelor of Arts

Bowman Cowne Anderson, Thurlay Louise Andrews, Cecelia Aplaker, Frances M. Ballow, Marcia Bartlett, Tatiana Bosse, Marcia Boteler, William B. Calomiris, Mary Virginia Cooper, Bernard R. Cooperman, Pauline Gish Davis, Louise M. Duerbach, Marjolaine Fisher, Murry Friedman, John W. Gibbs, Jeanette M. Golob, Alvin L. Gottlieb, Blanche Ann Hall, Mary Louise Harrison, Philip I. Herzbrun (with distinction), Special Honors in English, Mary A. Hoymanian, Augustus C. Johnson, Martha D. Johnston, Leon Kahn, Elizabeth C. Love, Suzanne Massonnet, William H. Meeks, George F. Newkirk, Mary Jean O'Leary, Mary F. Newkirk, Mary Jean O'Leary, Mary F. Newkirk (See GRADUATION, Page 8)

Attention, Veterans

• STUDENT VETERANS who have not received their Certificates of Entitlement and who want to attend the GW-Wayne University football game Saturday may get a special pass by applying at the Veterans Office located in Building Q.

Colonials' Debut Home; Rollins Outclassed 13-0

By MERVIN LEWIS

• STILL SHAKING FROM A GRUELING 13-0 victory over a Rollins College team which turned out to be a "sleeper," Coach Neil J. "Skip" Stahley will unveil to students and University football fans the 1946 Colonials when he leads his charges against Wayne University of Detroit on Saturday afternoon at Griffith Stadium. Kickoff time is 2:00 p.m.

The Detroiters roll into Washington with a record of one win and two losses behind them, but according to scouting reports, the Wayne gridmen were considerably handicapped by heavy rains and winds when they went down to defeat last Saturday against Western Reserve 7-0. They had previously beaten Ohio Wesleyan and lost to Michigan State in their opener 42-0. But as in the past two weeks, Stahley is discounting the numerous talk about "setups" and "breath-ers" and expects a lot of trouble from the men of Michigan, who work out of a balanced line and box formation, occasionally shifting into a "T."

The Wayne game will be the Colonials' first home game of the year and will give Buff and Blue followers their first chance to see the team which now holds forth as the only undefeated team in the district.

The "Royal Blue Express" as they are affectionately called almost came a cropper last Friday night when they bumped into a team which was returning to the gridiron sport after a lapse of four years. The Rollins College team turned out to be a big and rugged team, with a couple of sets of fast, hard running backs.

The inability to scout the Tars and the efficient scouting job which Coach Jack McDowall had done for his team turned out to be a big factor in the game and for a while the Colonials were unable to solve the smart defensive shifts of their opponents, who looked as if they had photographed every play.

But as in the Kings Point game, the G.W. Line spelled the difference between defeat and victory. Led by (See Page 6, Column 5)

• COME ON TEAM, let's go! say Cheerleaders Thomas, Dotson, Seegrist, Kendrick, Coleen, Smith and McKeel, as they pose prettily at the University's victorious grapple with the Merchant Marine Academy at King's Point.

New Cheer Squad Prepares For Pep Rally, Wayne Game

• AS A SPECIAL FEATURE of the first home game this Saturday with Wayne University, the cheering squad has planned a surprise exhibition stunt. In the spotlight will be June Willard, twice champion cheerleader of Indiana, who will twirl the baton and perform stunts with the group.

The cheerleading squad will play host to the student body at a "Victory" dance following Saturday afternoon's game with Wayne University. Cheerleader Shirley Smith, in announcing the event, urges the students to turn out for what will be this year's first function in the way of a "Pep Dance." The dance will be held in the recently renovated gymnasium, which sports a new floor. Manny Alvord will head the intermission show, which is under the direction of Pat Kendrick. The cheerleading squad will also perform during the break.

Dress is informal, and tickets will be available at the door for $1.20, stag or couple. Although a contract for the orchestra has been signed, the name of the unit was not available at press time.

The recently organized cheering squad has made several revisions and innovations. One change is that men have now joined the hitherto exclusively feminine group. The team will appear in all-white uniforms with new insignia which will be worn for the first time at the Wayne game.

At every home game, a surprise exhibition stunt will be featured. Tumbling and modern dance routines have been modified and incorporated into some of the new cheering motions.

The squad boasts a new constitution citing rules, duties, and squad purpose. Its authors are co-captains Jerry Thomas and Shirley B. Smith. Members are Betty Broadus, Maryanna Dotson, Betsy Kamp, Pat Kendrick, Kitty Killean, Sandy McKeel, Tom Pence, Lorraine Seegrist, Wesley Smiler, Shirley B. Smith, Jerry Thomas and George Weinberger.

"We have been working steadily on new cheers and motions since the last week of summer school," (See CHEERLEADERS, Page 4)

University Must Borrow to Pay Veterans Program

• IN HIS INFORMAL talk before the Veterans Club in Lisner Auditorium recently, Dr. Cloyd H. Marvin, University President, revealed that the University will have to borrow between one million and one and one half million dollars to finance the veterans' program.

In a talk with Dr. Mitchell Dreese, Director of Veterans Education, it was learned that, of this amount, the Veterans Administration will reimburse the University's backing of book purchases and tuition. Overhead for maintaining the Veterans Center and all other services is paid for by the University. The interest paid on the money borrowed is not returned to the University by the Veterans Administration.

Speaking in more detail about the Veterans Center itself, Dr. Dreese said there are eight full-time employees, with several students working part-time. The Center is divided into three sections—reception, requisition and registration. On the third floor are the offices of Veterans Administration advisors, at cost of that organization, while the main organization, under Dr. Dreese, is a part of the University, supported by the school.

Chapel to Meet

• AT TOMORROW'S CHAPEL service in Columbian House from 12:10 to 12:30 p.m., University students will hear the Reverend Fred Sherman Bushmeyer of the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church, speak on "Three Things to Do." Mr. Bushmeyer has spoken to the University students annually since he has been in the District of Columbia area.

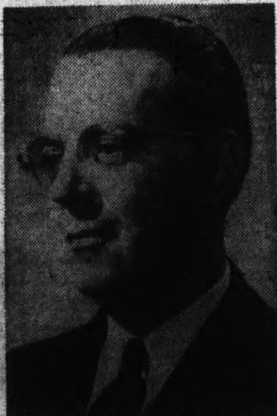

Cue and Curtain to Present Noel Coward's 'Blithe Spirit' Four Days Starting Wednesday

• CUE AND CURTAIN will present Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit" this coming Wednesday, October 23, at 8:40 p.m. as their first production of the year. The play will run four days—October 23, 24, 25 and 26.

The cast of seven will include: Frank Falkenhainer, Marmi Winterfield, Druce Snyder, Jane Drew, Dick Winfrey, Grace Pearson and Quinn Davies.

Under the direction of Jane Summers, stage manager of Cue and Curtain, the elaborate set for the production has been executed. Mr. Floyd L. Sparks announced.

Miss Grace Pearson has the lead role of Elvira, the late wife who returns from the beyond to make life miserable for her spouse's mate. Charles, the husband, is portrayed by Mr. Falkenhainer. Miss

FLOYD L. SPARKS

Winterfield is the present wife, Ruth. Madam Arcati, the "medium," is played by Miss Snyder. Jane Drew is Edith the maid, and Dick Winfrey and Quinn Davies are the dinner guests, Dr. and Mrs. Bradman.

Miss Pearson has acted in summer stock for the past four years at The Crossroads and has engaged in a professional singing career for several years. Mr. Winfrey returns to Cue and Curtain production after an absence of two years which he spent in the Army.

Single tickets for the production are $1.90 and $1.20. Subscription tickets may still be purchased at $5.40 and $3.60. The season tickets include this performance plus the already planned production of "Winteret" and the annual musical and annual Shakespearean drama.

The University Hatchet

Published weekly from September to June by the Students of The George Washington University, Washington, D. C. Entered as second-class matter, October 17, 1911, at the Post Office of Washington, D. C., under act of March 2, 1879.

REPRESENTED FOR NATIONAL ADVERTISING BY National Advertising Service, Inc.

College Publishers Representative
420 MADISON AVE. NEW YORK, N. Y.
Chicago - Boston - Los Angeles - San Francisco

Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103 Act of October 3, 1917, authorized March 3, 1919. Subscription, $2.00 a year.

EDITORIAL OFFICES..... 716 21st St., N.W.
TELEPHONE..... NA. 5207, Ext. 433, 437, 438
PLANT..... NA. 5838

Served by (ACP) Associated Collegiate Press and (IP) Intercollegiate Press.
Associated Collegiate Press
1946 Member 1947

BOARD OF EDITORS

Nancy Hanck Mervin Lewis Dorothy Henry
Harriet Schiff, Business Manager

SUB-EDITORIAL BOARD

News Editor..... Jim Pugh
Features Editor..... Ray Glasscock
Society Editor..... Jeanette Rayner
Copy Editor..... Sybella Clayton

SENIOR STAFF

Kay Shanahan Peter Potter Manny Avancena
Claire Jennings Jean Ferguson Julius Rosenthal
Penny Colwell Bob Flanders

JUNIOR STAFF

Eugenie Lee Fred de Luna Jeanne Heimann
Larry Woodward Bob Reardon Virginia Myers
Lois Lord Hugh Norton Joy Dooley
Doris Gates Margaret Ann Odum Jay Johnston
Bob Johnson John Morris Stuart Brown
Leigh Curry Charles Lillen

BUSINESS STAFF

Advertising Manager..... Jack Donaldson
Circulation Manager..... Gene Paternoster
Cartoonists..... Dino Brugioni, Ed Bockelman

Letters to the Editor will be accepted from all students registered at the University, alumni, faculty, administration officials and former students now on war leave. All letters must bear the name and address of the writer, and would not be interpreted to represent the opinions or policy of The Hatchet.

Vol. 43, No. 4

Thursday, October 17, 1946

Fools Rush In...

ONE OF THE most pathetic, yet most easily remedied, problems emerging from the increased enrollment of students at the University is the daily chaos of hundreds of students struggling to get to classes on time in the Hall of Government, particularly at the hours of 9 and 10 a.m. and 6 and 7 p.m.

Students who try to get into the building find themselves brought to a standstill as the onslaught of outgoing students attempt to make an exit through the same doorway. Confusion such as this breeds class tardiness, provokes tempers and creates a general ill feeling among both professors and students. Worse, in the turmoil of the situation, calamities might easily result.

One solution, a simple one, could be accomplished by use of a few signs giving directions to the student body. Modern and spacious, the Hall of Government is equipped with two stairways and two doorways of equal size, with four additional exits in the basement.

With signs as guides, students going to classes in the upper floors of Government Building could use the front entrance and the stairway to their right, while students coming from classes could use the opposite stairway and leave through the doorway in the back of the building. Most of the students leaving classes in the basement, provided they are not going to an upper floor, have available to them the four exits downstairs, two leading from each floor.

Though this recommendation may seem childish to some, we strongly believe that emergency measures should be taken to relieve the traffic congestion now existing. Any solution which might alleviate the situation deserves serious consideration and we suggest that the new faculty-student committee on current University problems investigate this situation immediately.

Regarding Elections

LAST MONDAY NIGHT, approximately one thousand people, mainly students, attended the political forum sponsored by the Student Council on the coming elections.

The forum, first of a series to be presented by the Council, was enthusiastically received by the audience, and the program was one of the most outstanding and successful events presented by the Council in many years. By actively supporting the forum, the students of the University have assured the use of the auditorium for other University functions and have demonstrated their interest and appreciation in worthwhile programs. This is only the beginning. The student body has only to continue its support of Student Council functions to assure other such outstanding programs in the future. A new era in University student life has begun. It is now up to the student body to carry on.

Letter to The Editors:

Dear Editors:

CONSTRUCTIVE suggestions are in order concerning the waiting lines that try our souls and bruise our spirits, not to mention the physical exhaustion involved.

After registration, the GW authorities must know approximately what supplies will be needed. Why not have books in each classroom at the opening session, to be dispensed by ambitious students who wish to earn extra money? Opening classes are usually dismissed after very brief instructions. The extra time could well be spent in getting the necessary supplies instead of waiting in two or more different lines, at bookshop and student union (sic).

No intention of depriving the bookstores of profits is involved. It is the booksellers, at the instigation of the University, who should devise less barbarous methods of distributing their wares. For instance, additional counters formed from the tables could be temporarily arranged in the student union (sic), with employees of the bookstores (students or otherwise) selling the supplies.

There may be as many ideas as there are students. Somewhere amidst all this brain power should evolve a more civilized and efficient system.

In closing, one of the demoralizing features of the tedious lines are the smart guys and gals who won't play the game square, but horn in by the dozen ahead of more honorable students. They slow down the lines by requesting favors of "friends," by slipping in where they have no business to be, as well as by other devices not for the best good of the most people! Public opinion and student government should take active steps to set such misguided souls in the right way before they make a life work of such methods, thus sadly discrediting their alma mater.

Oh, yes! Have the college authorities forgotten that the University is supposed to be run for the benefit of the students, NOT vice versa? Are these lines their idea of proper hazing, or don't they give a continental about other people's discomforts, so long as they are not involved? After the first three hours of standing, questions like these inevitable ones intrude into the consciousness of the distressed and demoralized victim.

Hopefully yours,

Elizabeth McSherry

Have You Met—

BILL HAM

PHI SIGMA KAPPA president, William Ham, begins his fourth year at the University with that goal of a degree in accounting well in sight. Bill will leave an impressive record of activities behind him and has come to be one of the highly regarded campus leaders.

Beside wielding the gavel at Phi Sig, Bill holds membership in the Glee Club, Alpha Kappa Psi, Society for the Advancement of Management and the Canterbury Club.

Bill has the unique record among Phi Sigs of having held every office in the fraternity. He served last year on the Hatchet Staff, and as President of the Junior Class.

After trouncing down the aisle at Western High School for his diploma, Bill embarked at once on the stormy seas of the University's higher learning. During that time, he met a charming little Kappa, Peg Holliman, to whom he's now unofficially engaged. Bill and Peg, one of the staunch couples around campus, have definite marriage plans for next September.

Following the receipt of his sheepskin, Bill plans to work toward a C. P. A. (Certified Public Accountant, that is), and toward building a little blue heaven for Peg and himself.

George's Ghost

By LEON SHAMPAIN and JAY GLUCK

I WAS ghosting along Twenty-Second Street Saturday night when I heard sounds of revelry issuing forth from the Veteran's Club. Since it was still early I figured there might be some spirits remaining. I walked in. There in a corner, seated all alone, was a pretty blonde.

"These young whippersnappers must be pretty dumb!" I exclaimed as I sat down beside her. "Leaving you all alone like this."

"My husband didn't leave me alone," she said. "He's behind the couch."

"And what is the name of the man who left his wife and passed out behind a couch?"

"His name is Chuck Cowell," she replied. "And he didn't pass out. He and Hal Brown and Al Guerra are having a touch-football conference."

Just then there was a slight commotion behind the couch; the conferees were evidently coming out.

"How'd everything go, fellows?" asked Mrs. Cowell. "Pretty good, honey," answered Chuck. "Brownie and I have just finished interviewing Al for an important position on the team. . . . Did you know that Al is a three bucket man?"

Seriously, though, I think we're really going to have a great team and we'll "molder" those frat boys. However, we could still use a few more players. The boys seem a little bashful about coming in and volunteering. I guess some vets have carried their "don't volunteer-fer-nuttin'" complex over into civilian life.

I wandered downstairs to the bar. They were serving some beer named "Valley Forge." Had I given some of that stuff to my troops when they sweated out that cold winter at Valley Forge they would at least have had something nice and soothing to soak their aching feet in.

I talked for a while with the bartender. "You see those two guys over there," he said. "They room together over on Que Street and, boy, are they hard drinkers. Once they had their water cut off on a Monday and they didn't discover it till the following Saturday."

"See that little guy over in the corner," he continued. "The guy wearing the loud jacket that looks like a horse blanket. . . . He dropped a bottle of beer on the floor a little while ago and it spilled all over."

"That's too bad," I sympathized. "I bet he feels terrible about that."

"Oh, he'll be all right as soon as they get all the splinters out of his tongue!"

They all laughed when I stood up at the Vet's Beer Party—how was I to know I was under the table?

Letters From the Loveworn Department

Dear George:

My name is Myrtle and I'm keeping company with my fella named Herman. Herman is a vermin exterminator. Herman wants to marry with me, but mamma won't let him in the house and keeps saying that vermin exterminating is too undignified. Now I love mamma very much and I keep telling her that it isn't Herman who has the vermin. Mamma is ninety years old and is a trifle stubborn and old-fashioned in her ways—and I love her very much and I wouldn't want to do anything that would pain her. . . . My question is—Do you think strychnine is less painful than arsenic?

A timid little creature about nineteen and blond walked into the Hatchet office and asked to see the editor. The editor wasn't around so I asked if I could be of service.

"I would like to write for the paper," she said.

"Do you have much writing experience?" I asked.

"Well, I wrote a confession story once."

"Was it bought?"

"No," she replied. "But the editor of the magazine came all the way from San Francisco to see me!"

It happened in one of the local eateries. A tall, distinguished looking gentleman with a red carnation in his buttonhole walked in and sat down at the lunch counter.

"I'd like two eggs, please. Don't fry them a second after the white is cooked. Don't—under no circumstances—turn them over. Not too much fat. Just a small pinch of salt on each. No pepper. . . . Well, what are you waiting for?"

The waitress eyed him coldly. Then slowly and deliberately she retorted:

"The hen's name is Margaret. Is that all right, sir?"

On the Government building steps the other day an eager-beaver student known for his patronizing ways approached a notoriously grouchy professor.

"Good morning, sir," he greeted ingratiatingly.

"Grumpff," responded the prof.

"Lovely day, isn't it?"

"Garumph."

"Professor, I trust you will pardon me for speaking of such a personal matter, but I read in the papers that you buried your wife yesterday, and I want to extend my heartfelt sympathy."

The professor set his lips grimly and stared at the young man for a moment.

"Oh, yes-yes," he replied, "buried my wife. . . . Had to—dead, y'know."

6018 Vets Swell Fall Enrollment

Dreese Believes High Registration Will Continue

• DR. MITCHELL DREESE, director of Veterans' Education, announced that 5,807 veterans have enrolled under the GI Bill and 211 under the Public Law 16, a total of 6,018 veteran registrations at the University. Out of this record enrollment, the subsistence papers of all but 350 have been sent to the Veterans' Administration.

The veteran attendance has leaped upward out of all proportions in the last year. Just one year ago, in the 1945 fall term, only 420 ex-servicemen were registered. Three months later, in the winter term, the figure jumped to 2,410. The 1946 summer session boasted a veteran enrollment of 2,515, as compared with approximately 150 in 1945.

Detailed breakdown of registration will not be available for about a month, but it is known that 130 veterans are in the School of Medicine.

Fifteen thousand requisition forms had to be inspected and authorized, Dr. Dreese said. At Columbian House, eight lines were formed so that eight forms could be handled at one time.

The large number resulted when veterans had to submit more than one requisition form. The book stores necessarily had to keep the forms to substantiate their bills to the University.

When asked his opinion of the popular belief that the veteran enrollment will take a drastic drop in a year or two, Dr. Dreese denied the probability, with the statement that discontinuance of education occurs more with the non-veterans than with the ex-servicemen. He added that there can be no comparison between such a drop in attendance at colleges during World War I and World War II. There was no GI Bill in 1918, only a rehabilitation law for the wounded. Ex-servicemen who had served but had escaped injury were not entitled to subsistence while getting an education.

Dr. Linton Speaks

• SPEAKING ON "The Essential Role of Religion in Higher Education," Doctor Calvin D. Linton highlighted the annual Fall Fellowship held in the Strong Hall Lounge last Tuesday.

Doctor Linton stated during his speech that "many famous scientists have reached their belief in a personal God through reasoning. This is a God of personality and not just of abstract laws."

Skin And Bones

By KAY SHANAHAN

• AMONG THE time-honored medical school customs is the one that a girl shall be 'secretary-treasurer' of any co-ed organization, as a class or club. Rarely is this violated. So with three girls available, Morris Sisler was among those nominated for this office in Smith-Reed-Russell last Saturday. We raise an inquiring eyebrow.

Being a professional blood donor is one of the numerous means by which an always impoverished medical student can augment his resources. But it's a wonderful thing the way a med student always gets called in the wee small hours of the morning. Especially at Emergency where other medics hold down the night lab jobs. Well, at least it should be good practice for night calls once we hang out those coveted shingles.

Speaking of the jobs, some of the ones the medics get are pips. Latest news on this front is that Matt Marans, Karl Ebnather, and Chuck Campbell are taking over in a local alcoholic clinic. Considering the effect of environment on personality, we'll just offer them best wishes.

The senior class dance lived up to all expectations. If it is a sample, the social life of the medical school will hit a new high this year. About eleven p.m. everyone was really doing OK with a song-fest of our own special musical repertoire led off by the seniors during the intermission. Most interesting sight of the evening to us was Eliza Shumaker making a quiet survey of all the tables

MITCHELL DREESE

Oxford Gives Rhodes Awards This December

• RHODES Scholarships elections throughout the country will be resumed this December, Dr. Richard N. Owens, secretary of the Phi Beta Kappa chapter of the University of Oxford in October 1947. Forty-eight scholarships will be awarded to the United States this year and a like amount next year instead of the usual thirty-two scholarships.

Because the elections have been suspended since 1939, age requirements have been relaxed. Previously, winners had to be between 19 and 25 years of age. Now candidates may also include persons eligible to compete under prewar terms between 1939 and 1946, provided they have had at least one year of military or civilian war service. Service candidates may be between the ages of 19 and 32.

War candidates are absolved of the usual bar against marriage, with a requirement of only one year of college or university training, a drop from the usual requirement of two years.

Selections are based on the following qualifications: literary and scholastic ability and attainments; qualities of manhood, truth, courage, devotion to duty, sympathy, kindness, unselfishness, and fellowship; exhibition of moral force of character and of instincts of leadership and sociability; and physical vigor as shown by interests in outdoor sports or in other ways.

Applications and requests for further information should be made to Dr. Frank Aydelotte, Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, N. J.

Homecoming Features McIntyre For Gala Dance At Mayflower

Night Hours

• BY APPOINTMENT only, the Veterans' Education Office at 2029 H Street, N.W., will now be open on Wednesday evenings. Mr. Leonard Vaughan, Assistant Director of Veterans Education, will be available to advise veterans with education problems who are unable to get to the office during regular hours. Appointments can be arranged by calling NA 5200, Extension 334.

Contact men from the Veterans Administration will be available on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings until 8 p.m. at 2027 H Street, N.W., for veterans who have questions regarding claims, hospitalization, insurance and other veterans information.

Band Prepares For Brilliant Musical Season

• PREDICTING an outstanding musical season for the University Band during the current year, Leon Brusiloff, Band Director, is now putting his players in form for the Griffith Stadium home game on October 19. The band will also appear for its main attraction at the pep rally Friday the 18th, led by drum majorette Jimmy Jean Cantrell.

Former Officer-in-Charge of First Marine Division Band, and now a Major in the Marine Reserve, Director Brusiloff embarked upon a career of music at the age of twelve. Mr. Brusiloff is experienced in all fields of music, and he is at present staff conductor of NBC and CBS.

The University Band is now being reorganized after a long period of demobilization, and ambitious plans are being made for band activities for the coming season. A midwinter and spring concert, which as yet have not been definitely scheduled, are on the top of the list. Director Brusiloff plans to make this band sufficiently flexible that it will be able to play anything from concert to dance style.

There is still a crying need for musicians, for at present there are only fifty-two members while Mr. Brusiloff had planned for a hundred. There is an immediate need for twelve clarinet players, one oboe player, and two sousaphone players, as well as a need for bass and tuba players. To all members of the Veterans Dance Band Director Brusiloff sends a cordial invitation for them to join the University Band. The uniforms for the band members have now been issued, and incidentally are to be worn at the game Saturday; according to Mr. Brusiloff they will come in very handy for the Veterans' Band to use as substitutes for tuxedos whenever the case may arise.

In looking over the band equipment, Mr. Brusiloff has found some shortage in uniforms and instruments, and he wishes to appeal to all former members of the band who have any instruments or uniforms to please turn them in, since there is a shortage of both, especially instruments.

With the stress and strain that has lately been placed upon school spirit, Mr. Brusiloff pointed out the fact that a band, and a real band, is a vital need in university life. It is with this idea in mind that Mr. Brusiloff is reorganizing the University Band; but, he points out, this objective cannot be achieved without a great many more players. Director Brusiloff more than ever emphasizes that the band will welcome all with musical talent and a desire to promote music in the University life.

Sorority Meets

• PHI PI EPSILON, professional foreign service sorority, held its first meeting of the semester last night in Columbian House, Mary Jane Kilple, president, announced.

The agenda for the coming year was outlined and plans for a rush party to be held Sunday were discussed. All women interested in this should contact Miss Kilple at Staughton Hall.

Other officers for the coming year are Joan Hyatt, vice president; Dorothea Baker, secretary; Dorothy Bucklew, corresponding secretary; Betty Mayfield, treasurer; Elaine Clark, pledge mistress; Mary Davis and Jackie Snell, co-historians.

Campus Organizations to Sponsor Floats in Torchlight Parade

• DURING HOMECOMING WEEK following the William and Mary game, November 16, Hal McIntyre and his orchestra will be featured at the semi-formal dance at the Mayflower Hotel. Tickets at $2.40 per person will be on sale next month at the University.

At the dance the Homecoming Queen will reign with her court of the five runners-up. The Queen will be chosen from candidates sponsored by sororities, other University women's organizations, and Independents. The required 5"x7" glossy-finished, full-length photographs and statements listing attributes, together with the ballots printed in last week's issue of The Hatchet, must be submitted to June Isenberg in Staughton Hall no later than noon Friday, November 1.

From the candidates, six semi-finalists will be chosen by several prominent persons of the Washington stage, and each semi-finalist will be featured on one of the six floats to lead the giant Torchlight Parade on Friday night, November 15. The floats will be sponsored by six University clubs, including the Inter-Fraternity Council, Pan-Hellenic, and the Veterans Club. The Homecoming Queen will be picked by a well-known authority on beauty, and will reign at the William and Mary game as well as at the dance.

On Sunday, November 17, contestants for the title of Homecoming Queen will be honored at a tea at Strong Hall.

• TWENTY-ONE juniors and six seniors were recognized for scholarship last week when the new members of Smith-Reed-Russell, medical school honor society, were announced.

The honorary, named for three famous scientists, Theobald Smith, Walter Reed, and Frederiek Russell, who were once associated with the medical school, includes those senior and junior students who have attained an average of 88 in the previous two or three years.

Junior students honored were: Eddie Wood, Eliza Shumaker, Don Glew, Jack Segal, Larry Post, Bert Nelson, Frank Meller, Matt Marens, Ray Band, Bernie Harrison, Bernie Ostrow, Lee Cluff, Tom Fogarty, Luther Brady, Bill Halliday, Peter Soyster, Charles Weber, Ben Thaw, Marshall Jacobson, Joe Collins, and Howard Kimball.

Senior students selected were: DeLora Fowler, John Westfall, Bill Shore, Emil Allen, James Sites and James Berry.

Saturday morning at a short meeting members elected the following officers for the forthcoming academic year: James Mann, president; Bert Nelson, vice president; DeLora Fowler, secretary-treasurer.

Change Address

• DR. BURNICE JARMAN, registrar, has issued a "strong request" that all students whose addresses have changed since opening of the fall term notify the Registrar's Office, their families, other correspondents, and publishers of the changes.

Valuable time, he said, is wasted in re-addressing the piles of misdirected mail which have swamped his office.

Dr. Howard M. Merriman Returns to Diplomatic History

By SYBELLA CLAYTON

• AMONG THOSE BEWILDERED faces you saw around the campus Registration Week was one owned by returning veteran Dr. Howard M. Merriman, Associate Professor in American Diplomatic History. When Dr. Merriman left the University to enter the Army as a private, the University was a tiny school of only 6,000 students. The entering approximate 14,000 is an overwhelming sight, and according to Dr. Merriman they all seemed to be in Junior College and heading straight for his desk at Registration.

"You know this place is crowded when an upperclass course like my 'Diplomatic History of the United States' has to be given in two sections," Dr. Merriman stated.

"While in the G-2 Army Intelligence, for three and one half years, Dr. Merriman rose through the ranks from private to first lieutenant—hitting all the grades on the way up, from buck sergeant to warrant officer. Of his war experiences, all that is quotable is "It was a very interesting experience," he said. Add to that one short smile.

Included in Dr. Merriman's pre-war experience are a year on the Left Bank in Paris, four years as an undergraduate at the University of Cincinnati where he obtained his A.B. He obtained his Ph.D. at Harvard University in 1937 and thereupon made his way to this University. For five years the Hall of Government rang with his sonorous voice until the unlucky day when he too got his greeting from the President of the United States. But once again, girls, Dr. Merriman is back—and—he's still a bachelor.

Sororities Pledge 220 As Fall Rushing Ends

• PANHELLENIC Council last week announced the pledging of 220 girls to the twelve national sororities on campus.

The two weeks of rush parties, planned in accordance with the new system inaugurated by PanHel this year, culminated in the formal pledging of the new sorority girls last Thursday evening.

Leading the list with 25 girls each are Kappa Kappa Gamma and Sigma Kappa. Kappa Alpha Theta pledged 23; Phi Sigma Sigma, 21; Kappa Delta, 19; Alpha Delta Pi and Zeta Tau Alpha, 18; Delta Zeta, 17; Chi Omega, Delta Gamma and Phi Phi, 15; and Phi Mu, 9.

The names of the girls pledged are as follows:

Alpha Delta Pi: Geraldine Anderson, Marjorie Bragunier, Emily Callaway, Mary Carson, Marie Gottsch, Judy Haswell, Joan Leidinger, Nancy Lee Lynn, Shirley Matchett, Mildred McDowell, Nancy Merrill, Margaret Royce, Gloria Rue, Barbara Stewart, Mary Jo Suverkrup, Laura Thompson, Janet Viar, and Nancy Wetzel.

Chi Omega: Nancy Abreo, Helen Aters, Millie Benson, Jane Braley, Barbara Bruce, Jewel Ann Hayes, Betty Henry, Joan Lawrence, Katherine Livesay, Jean Minear, Mary Nason, Audrey Rands, Beverly Rohrs, Sibyl Warthen, and Phyllis Weissinger.

Delta Gamma: Marty Barnaby, Jimmy Jean Cantrell, Barbara Copeland, Jeanne Curtiss, Barbara Farrell, Ann Hawthorne, Sue Hill, June Isenberg, Maureen Larkin, Betty Latimer, Patricia Lawlor, Anna Plepis, Kathryn Rea, Martha Rea, and Aleda Roberts.

Delta Zeta: Betty Bauersfeld, Dorothy Balzer, Grace Bunker, Betty Covell, Dorothy Dean, Lucy Dority, Marion Fisher, Edith Harper, Kit Neel, Kathryn Plugge, Audrey Sergeant, Barbara Sorenson, Sylvia Srinke, Judy Stickney, Joan Suppes, Virginia Teeter, and Patricia Wolff.

Kappa Alpha Theta: Nancy June Allen, Barbara Armstrong, Juanita Duval, Sally Ann Evans, Leatha Garmany, Joan Garwood, Anne Greer, Almira Head, Joan Heiner, Charleen Johnson, Betty King, Miles Lind, Nancy Lipscomb, Gwen Loomis, Amelia McNally, Jane Merwin, Mary Norwood, Marcia Roersing, Jean Schick, Mary Squires, Carol Stout, Marjorie Tichenor, and Myra Nan Toel.

Kappa Delta: Ellen Bie, Marie Bie, Rita Bie, Joan Brannon, Dorothy Davidson, Alice Duncan, Margaret Fox, Mary Gore, Shirley Green, Mary Haley, Priscilla Hart, Jean Honeman, Genevieve Jensen, Jimmy McClifford, Ann Mibuck, Mary Pat Smith, Joan Stevens, Susan Syputt, and Irene Yazge.

Kappa Kappa Gamma: Nancy Anderson, Pauline Bott, Nancy Crane, Barbara Davis, Mary Frank Day, Anne Diffendifer, Eloise Duckworth, Sue Farquharson, Nancy Groves, Betty Kline, Sherry Marthinson, Elizabeth McCreary, Pat Morgan, Ann Penningtoth, Jana Pierce, Betty Jo Richardson, Barbara Rosson, Claudia Smedberg, Anne Smith, Joann Spaulding, Mary Alice Trimble, Gertrude Tuley, Pat Tully, Mary Alice Thurman, and Jo Ann Walsh.

Phi Mu: Ann Coste, Mildred Hodiwalker, Elly Maultass, Jean Norcross, Mary Norment, Marie Picciano, Pat Purcell, Mary Sue Read and Joan Woodruff.

Phi Sigma Sigma: Gloria Burstein, Elaine Dolinsky, Elinor Gering, Eleanor Gittleman, Eloise Gruner, Irma Hamburger, Rita Kaden, Judy Kutz, Edith Levitov, Gerry Liehlich, Elaine Lippman, Messing Macha, Claire Packman, Carol Rice, Harryette Schwartz, Rhona Shaw, Elaine Stern, Judy Siegler, Sherry Simon, Claire Spitalney, and Shirley Soltz.

Phi Beta Phi: Ann Bradshaw, Sue Britton, Marilyn Brownfield, Molly Cochran, Lester Dessez, Mary Francis Dickinson, Jane Herring, Winifred MacGowan, Peggy Mendenhall, Barbara F. Potts, Jacqueline Snell, Robin Stickie, Ruth Stickie, Betty Swanson, and Sally Tischbein.

Sigma Kappa: Mary Adams (See SORORITIES, Page 6)

Group to Form

• ALL WOMEN members of national sororities without chapters on campus who are interested in forming an organization similar to the Argonauts are urged to attend a meeting in Miss Virginia Kiebride's office tomorrow evening at 8 p.m.

Women Vets Sport Snappy Campus Wear

BY JEANNE HEIMANN

• INVASION of the first order has swept the University campus this semester. The Marines have landed! So have the Army and Navy. The effect is fearful and wonderful—fearful in numbers, that is, and wonderful in spirit. A new and refreshingly lively tempo "gives."

Interspersed in these vast numbers of returned veterans are some hundred and fifty attractive females. It is difficult to realize there are so many since they skillfully avoid all tell-tale shades of khaki or blue and consequently slip unnoticed into the line of feminine pulchritude on campus.

Gone, for them are the days of uniforms. Only a rainy day will bring out the practically forgotten military gear. To those of you who are curious about who did and who did not belong (this sounds like the famous 400 watch for raincoats, headgear, and rubbers. Who indeed, but female veterans have such smart rain togs!

As modern as tomorrow in their motif of dress, many of these lassies who have served Uncle Sam so well have spent the fruits of their labors (mustered out pay in the vet's vernacular) for handsome campus clothes—a source of amazement, no doubt, to the male population who are suffering with the shirt shortage.

Already the Veterans' Club is able to boast a membership of forty-five of these girls. (They have a few men too, which makes for lots of fun.) The selection of a candidate for homecoming queen represents the first attempt of the women veterans on campus to organize.

Most of these former Wacs, Waves, and Spars are finding scholastic achievement very strenuous. They maintain though that settling down to school days again is wonderful.

Hailing from far and near, some chose the University because they enjoyed their tour of duty in the nation's capital. Others selected it on the merits of its fine reputation. Still others came on the recommendations of graduates. And one petite, shiny-eyed Rebel confessed that she is here because of a heart interest.

Having successfully secured the target for which they worked so long, our new group of coeds now have myriad different objectives—big executive, writer, teacher, housewife, and many more—to which they have affixed their enthusiastic efforts.

GINN'S

1417 New York Ave., N. W.
Office Supplies and Equipment
REpublic 5850

STUDENTS!

The TROCADERO CAFE

Offers

LUNCH DINNER

At Reasonable Prices

826 18th St., N.W.
(Near Doctor's Hospital)

Open 'Til 12:00

Convenient to G.W.
Campus

Orchesis Holds First Square Dance Meeting

• ALL PERSONS interested in learning to square dance, call, or play in a square dance band are urged to attend a meeting tonight at 9 p.m. in Building J, announced Irene Martin, business manager, and Joe Schenk, assistant business manager and caller for the University's new Square Dance Club, a subsidiary of Orchesis.

IRENE MARTIN

"Promotion of the square dance as a social activity on the campus is the purpose of this club," Miss Martin said. "It also provides a means for great fun at little or no expense. We want to give the students at the University an opportunity to meet each other informally."

A Sadie Hawkins Day Dance is planned for November 9 in the gym. This will be a no-date affair. Admission will be 50c, and sneakers and old clothes will be in order.

Formation of the new group was inspired by the response given to "Square Dance Tonight," a modern dance based on American folk dances, which was presented by Orchesis last year. Although the primary purpose of the square dance group is purely social in nature, plans are underway for the organization of square dance teams next semester to attend such programs as the Swarthmore Festival for collegiate dance groups, and the National Folk Festival for folk dance teams.

If any interested persons are unable to attend the meeting tonight, they are asked to contact either Irene Martin, Strong Hall; Joe Schenk, Phi Sigma Kappa House, or Sybilla Clayton, business manager of Orchesis, at Strong Hall.

Vets Club Stages Gala Opening

• FORMAL OPENING OF the 722 Club took place Saturday night with more than two hundred veterans and their guests attending.

Located in the basement of the Veterans Club house at 722 22nd St., N. W., the cafe is open to members any night if it is booked in advance, house manager Zebb Harris stated.

Climax of the evening came when Kay Argo was chosen to represent the Veterans Club in the Homecoming contest. Dr. Mitchell Dreese, Director of Veterans' Education, headed the committee of judges.

Art work for the cafe was done by Bob Franklin, while Tom Cartin was in charge of lighting. Painting and repairing was done by members of the club.

Cheerleaders

(Continued from Page 1)
states Jerry, "and we are expecting a responsive turnout at the rally Friday to learn the cheers and a big follow-up at the game Saturday to make Griffith Stadium ring with those cheers."

The squad is now at full strength but will hold tryouts in December to fill vacancies left by graduates. Suggestions for cheers, however, may be turned in now to Kitty Killean at Strong Hall.

The cheerleaders are planning to go to both out-of-town games with Rutgers and The Citadel.

Engineers Visit Heurich Company

• MEMBERS AND FRIENDS of the student chapter of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers are invited to attend an inspection tour of the Christian Heurich Brewing Company's plant today. All interested persons will meet at the gate of the plant, 26th and Water Streets, N. W., at 2 p.m. The chapter plans to hold similar tours during the year.

P. J. Walton, application engineer for the General Electric Company, will speak tonight at 8 p.m. in the Potomac Electric Power Company Auditorium, 10th and E Streets, N. W. This lecture is sponsored by the Washington section of The American Institute of Electrical Engineers and is open to interested students. The subject of Mr. Walton's address will be "Design Requirements of Industrial Power Systems."

Contest Starts

• CONTRACT BRIDGE players at the University will be invited to enter a National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament within a few weeks, Foster M. Coffin of Cornell University, has announced.

The 1947 event will be a duplicate tournament for undergraduate pairs. After the preliminary rounds have been conducted by mail, sixteen teams will be chosen for the face-to-face finals in Chicago on April 18 and 19, 1947.

Honorary Elects

• AT ITS LAST MEETING Nu Chapter of Kappa Beta Pi, legal sorority, elected officers for the coming year.

Those elected were Mary E. Kipp, dean; Lynne A. Kaufman, assistant dean; Doris Culler, recording secretary; Sylvia Nielsen, corresponding secretary; Bertha Rothe, chancellor; Esther Kuske, quarterly correspondent; Justine Berry, marshal; Mary Gillispie and Blanche Range, Province Committee members.

BARBER SHOP

Sam and Jim, Bros.
2106 Pennsylvania Ave., N.W.
Ladies Hair Cuts

ICE . . . SKATING BOWLING

CHEVY CHASE ICE PALACE
4461 Conn. Ave. EM. 8100

BALFOUR

Fraternity And Sorority Pins

G. W. U. CLASS RINGS
JEWELRY and NOVELTIES • PROGRAMS-FAVORS
CRESTED STATIONERY

L. G. BALFOUR CO.

204 International Building

1519 F St., N. W.

Phone NA. 1045

The Classic Takes the PRIZE!

This smooth little number has good lines, good taste, good looks! It's a Jean Carr classic with gilt buttons and a handsome leather belt lit with nailheads. The fabric's a RELTEX rayon that looks like wool. Order yours in grey, aqua, toast, or appleberry red. Junior sizes 9 to 15. Only 12.98

USE THIS COUPON FOR ORDERING NOW!

TAGIL of NEW YORK Dept. 517

1186 Broadway, New York 1, N. Y.

Please send Jean Carr's Classic at $12.98

Size _____ Color _____

Check _____ Money Order _____ C.O.D. _____

Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

My Name _____

My Address _____

Zone Number _____

"Men Of Melody" Play For Freshman Mixer

• THE STARDUST, a get-acquainted dance for freshmen, will be held in the gymnasium on Friday, October 18, from nine to twelve, Dottie Simmons, Freshman Director of the Student Council, announced.

A special program will feature the University cheerleaders, presenting the school cheers. Larry Woodward, Student Council advocate will speak on the coming class elections stating the qualifications and requirements for the candidates.

Music for the mixer will be furnished by Lenny Mitchell and his University "Men of Melody." This ten-piece band features two vocalists, Jack Gibson and Eileen Derrel. Featured soloists will be Lenny Mitchell and Geri Kay on tenor sax, Stan Telchin and Johnny Leemans on trumpet, and trombone player "Dixie" Spoon.

The band consists of many vets, several of whom have played in army and navy bands. In addition, several of the boys have played with such name bands as Glen Gray, Sunny Dunham and Dean Hudson.

The band's library, consists of rhumbas, tangos, fox trots, and a great assortment of jump tunes.

Though newly organized, the "Men of Melody" are open for engagements. Interested parties should contact Lenny Mitchell.

Dottie Simmons stated that this dance will be strictly for freshmen. This statement was issued as a measure to hold down the number of upper classmen, since the last freshmen dance was dominated by students other than freshmen.

Engineer's Mixer Introduces Faculty

• THE ENGINEER'S MIXER was held last night in Government I for the purpose of introducing new engineering students to President Cloyd H. Marvin, Dean Frederick M. Pékner, Professors B. C. Cruikshanks, Carl H. Walther, Norman B. Ames, and Milton K. Akers.

The American Society of Civil Engineers, the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Theta Tau and Sigma Tau held brief welcoming meetings and refreshments were served.

Held at the beginning of each semester the Engineer's Mixer offers new students an opportunity to meet the faculty and officers of engineering societies and fraternities.

Theta Tau Meets

• FRANK A. HOWARD, noted New York engineer, will be initiated as an honorary member of Theta Tau, professional engineering fraternity, Saturday, October 19, at the Hotel Continental.

Mr. Howard donated a fund last year for a series of lectures fostered for the purpose of creating an interest in engineering research. The first of these lectures was given by Dr. E. U. Condon, Director of the Bureau of Standards.

Theta Tau met last Wednesday in Columbian house and welcomed back a large number of veteran fraternity brothers.

RELIGIOUS NOTES

By VIRGINIA MEYERS

Wesley Club

• ALL METHODIST STUDENTS of the University are invited to attend the meeting of the Wesley Club next Tuesday night, October 22 at 8 p.m. in Columbian House. The evening will begin with a fellowship period of singing and refreshments and will close with a candlelight service conducted by the Rev. Mr. James T. Bard.

Luthern Club

• THE LUTHERN CLUB inaugurates its bi-weekly meetings tonight at 8:15 p.m., at the Western Presbyterian Church, 1906 H St., N. W. Meetings will include panel discussions led by prominent ministers of the Washington area on problems of interest to students.

Westminster Foundation

• DR. C. S. NORBERG, noted specialist on foreign affairs and author of many articles and books, will speak at the weekly meeting of Westminster Foundation, Presbyterian organization for students, Tuesday, October 22, at 8:15 p.m., in the Foundation Room at Western Church, 1906 H St., N. W.

Canterbury Club

• DR. T. MOLLINGER of Virginia Seminary, will begin a series of lectures beginning October 20 at St. John's Parish Hall for members of the Canterbury Club.

Newman Club

• PLANS FOR THE COMING year will be announced at the meeting of the Newman Club tonight at 8 p.m. in Columbian House. All Catholic students of the University are invited to attend.

• MR. WILLIAM STRINGER of the Christian Science Monitor will speak at the annual fall reception of the Christian Science Organization of the University next Sunday, October 20, from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. in Columbian House.

(Religious clubs desiring publicity in this column are asked to call Virginia Myers, Strong Hall, ME. 5322.)

Benefits Available

• VETERANS ADMINISTRATION urges all veterans whose terminal leave began on or subsequent to September 1, 1946, to make application for educational benefit with the Veterans' Administration immediately.

Under the provisions of a recent ruling, veterans now on terminal leave are eligible for benefits under Public Law 346, exclusive of subsistence allowances.

Rushmen Ballot

• FRATERNITY balloting will be held today on the second floor of Columbian House. Hours of balloting will be from 11:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. and from 4:30 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. All men who have registered with the Interfraternity Council will be given a ballot and will indicate three fraternities, in order of their preference, from which he would accept a bid if it were offered. There will be a ballot fee of fifty cents.

COGS Meets To Consider Coming Season

• TOMORROW at 4 p.m., in Building D-303, the first meeting of COGS, College Organization for General Services, will be held.

COGS renders a valuable service to the community in hospital, settlement, and entertainment work throughout the city. Girls with the organization may work as Girl Scout assistants, ballroom and folk dancing teachers, pianists, song leaders, assistants in day nurseries and orphanages. Packaging food and equipment for such organizations as the Polish Relief and American Friends societies, as well as sewing and knitting, may be done at home if one hasn't enough time to work among the other COGS groups.

Co-directors Helen Bruhn and Phyllis Cocroft have announced the need for fifty girls to distribute programs and song sheets to the public Tuesday, October 22, when Kate Smith and Edward Horton will open the Community Chest Drive at the Treasury Department.

Other plans for the coming year will be announced to girls attending the meeting Friday. Those girls unable to attend the initial meeting at 4 p.m. tomorrow may sign up for work with COGS between 3 and 5 p.m. in D-303.

Girls applying for membership in COGS may earn their official keys after working on a point system. Old members who have earned their points may order their keys at the meeting Friday afternoon.

Sororities

(Continued from Page 4)

Mary Allison, Ann Arnold, Jane Ashdown, De Jan Autry, Barbara Bacon, Beverly Ewing, Pat Fulmer, Dorothy Goddeus, Joan George, Virginia Cross, Connie Heather, Mary Lohr, Barbara Longacker, Nellie Magnus, Dorothy Marshall, Marietta McCabe, Elsie Oliver, Louise Ordinal, Paula Parisus, Esther Porter, Betty Ann Price, Jane Rutley, Harriett Swinson, and Gloria Yocum.

Zeta Tau Alpha: Joanne Barnes, Betty Ann Beall, Eileen Cummings, Connie Dunn, Ann Ford, Jean Frank, Joyce Gibbons, Betty Hash, Charlotte Kause, Juanita Keene, Joyce Lear, Neala Nordstrom, Helen O'Leary, Pat Ray, Connie Spears, Barbara Stone, Dot Sutherland and Carol Westbrook.

• DAHLINKS. . . WELL AT LEAST sorority rushing is over . . . all the lovelies have made their choice . . . mucho congrats and all that sort of thing. There was no dirty rushing this year, but I hear that Tappa Nu Keg gave away the prettiest diamond bracelets to their rushees . . . and speaking of rushees . . . Dave Hildreth, Sig, seen hawking Ann Diffenderfer . . . JoAnn, please copy . . . Biggest discovery of the week . . . Draper Hall is so-o-o-o close to Strong . . . Have been advised that if Richie of the Draper Richies doesn't watch that line he will have washing hung on it . . . Alma Wyvil, ADPI, pinned to big John, Sig . . . School is really getting serious note . . . SAE Bill Long moving out of the dorm so that he can study . . . Jane Merwin, Theta pledge, the object of many admiring glances in the Student Club . . . TDX's Hurt, Bacon, Wallach, Streater and Donahue didn't quite make the football game in New York . . . they were left stranded in Maryland when Bacon decided not to go any farther—Greyhound, that is . . .

What's New in What House Department . . . See the knotty pine department of the Sigma Nu house . . . Gee fellas, you ought to see the redecorating job the Alvords did on the Chi-O rooms . . . And the Sigma Chi house has added the neatest Peter Hunt designs in, of all places, the . . . you guessed it . . . SAE's practically operating a broadcasting studio . . . they had the G.W. game piped to their house for a rush function . . . Kappas having Founder's Day banquet at the Washington Club . . . Di Roosevelt overheard explaining to a new girl in the dorm, "Don't be silly, this isn't your room, it's the elevator." . . . TKE's expecting a new house nearer school . . . welcome to Foggy Bottom, you all . . .

I Love That Hat Department . . . PIKA Jerry Brentlinger drives a World War 1 jeep . . . June Speaker of Martha Washington Club fame engaged to a Rutgers man . . . Grace Feldman, Phi Sigma Sigma, back in school after a wonderful summer in California . . . Rumor hath it that Malcom Kilduff, PIKA, was seen sober last week . . . some days it doesn't pay to get up at all . . . By the by, Phyllis Sherman married to Mel Rossman . . .

No Eyewitness Needed Department . . . Newest flourish of the week is the Jay Richards-Kathy Colbourn item . . . Sigma Kappa Lois Smith announcing her engagement to Jack Simpson . . . Take Sig Melhope's time, divide by three, and you get Dottie Henry, Mag Lannigan and "Pat" . . . Agar Jaicks and Chuck Campbell were given a birthday party in the barracks . . . Happy Birthmark, kiddies . . . Add this to your questionnaire . . . what has caused the Sigma Kappas sudden interest in poetry? . . . TDX Jack Quintrel isn't too happy about being on the loose . . . "Aw come on PUNCHY, get me a date." . . . Mary Squires, Theta pledge, entertaining her Spanish class for dinner, it says here . . . Sigma Chi welcoming Dick Markhoff back after six years in service, five years overseas and four years without mail . . . Drucie Snyder, Pi Phi, telling fortunes to practice for her role in "Blithe Spirit" . . . Ray Glasscock, Phi Sig, looking tres intellectual with those horn rimmed glasses . . .

Seeing Who Doing What . . . Jean Martin modeling evening dresses while on shopping tour with "friend" . . . Bev Harris proudly wearing her newly acquired Chi-O pin . . . Frances Huford, Sigma Kappa, arriving at airport after transcontinental flight . . . Jane Baggs can be seen carrying a torch any day, from 9 to 5 . . . Marshall Gardner, TKE, looking up the life cycle of rats in the research room . . . Jim O'Brien, SAE, flying to West Virginia to see Carolyn Glasscock, Kappa . . .

Well fellow scholars, this concludes our eavesdropping for the week, and remember, everything you say will be held against you next issue. We are offering a prize of a free pass to the book store for the best scandal of the week, so start mis-behaving.

Respectfully submitted,

Consuella McNish

DRAFTING MATERIALS
MUTH 710 13TH., N.W.

RC I L C Theatre E

Penna. Ave. at 21st St. RE. 0184

THURSDAY, Oct. 17—"THE LOST WEEK-END," with Ray Milland, Jane Wyman. At 5:45, 7:40, 9:40.

FRIDAY, Oct. 18—"SHE WROTE THE BOOK," with Joan Davis, Jack Oakie. At 6:20, 8:00, 9:45.

SATURDAY, Oct. 19—"SHADOW OF A WOMAN," with Helmut Dantine, Andrea King. At 1:30, 3:35, 5:45, 10:00.

SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY, Oct. 20, 21, 22—"THE BIG SLEEP," with Humphrey Bogart, Lauren Bacall. Sun. at 1:10, 3:15, 5:20, 7:25, 9:30. Mon. and Tues. at 5:10, 7:20, 9:30.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 23—"ISLE OF THE DEAD," with Boris Karloff, Ellen Drew. At 5:15, 7:45, 10:10. Also "BING DONG WILLIAMS," with Glenn Vernon, Nancy McGuire. At 8:40, 9:10.

THURSDAY, Oct. 24—"EARL CARROLL SKETCHBOOK," with Constance Moore, William Marshall. At 8:00, 7:45, 9:40.

LITTLE VIENNA RESTAURANT

2122 Pennsylvania Ave., N. W.

(Opposite Circle Theater)

CONTINUOUS MUSIC BY MUZAK

SPECIAL STUDENTS MEAL TICKETS . . . $5.50 for $5.00

Dinner 4 p.m. to 9 p.m.--Supper to Midnight

Sunday 1 p.m.—midnight

Colonials Home Debut at Stadium

OUT OF THE BASKET

By MERVIN LEWIS

I FOLLOW UP MY FIRESIDE chat of last week, by saying only this.

The George Washington University football team has won its second game of the season. They are the only undefeated team in the district. Every game they win from now on, and they'll win a few more, is gravy.

To all those who know what I mean I extend a hearty horselaugh and say "I told you so."

Which brings me to the topic of the day. One thing that broke my heart at both Kings Point and Orlando, Fla., were the statements of numerous people to the effect that they never heard of the University or that G.W. was the school where the students had less school spirit than any college in the country.

To the first question, the answer was the kind of football the team played. New York and Orlando will never forget that the University is located in Washington, D. C., and that they have a pretty good football team.

But the second question left me without an answer. I simply hung my head and walked away. The only possible answer to such a query is, "sad but true."

Two sterling examples of a student body which refuses to participate in University activities and events were the freshman assembly a few weeks ago and the pep rally held the day before the football team left to play its opening game against the Kings Point Merchant Marine Academy.

The first event doesn't belong in a sports column, but the second catastrophe certainly demands a white washing.

The few scores of students who did attend the pep rally were totally unable to do any cheering. Why, I don't know.

The most gripping part of the incident, however, was the attitude of some students who were overheard to say that they were startled and horrified at Coach Skip Stahley's "uncalled for outburst."

Here I step right up and pat Skip on the back. Students will learn, as I have, that this 38-year-old football veteran is very frank and blunt, and will come out and say just what he means without mincing any words.

Those students at the University who were hurt by his frank and truthful statements, and there were plenty of them, were more shamed than anything else. It's the old saying that the "truth really hurts."

Stahley was probably more a victim of his emotion that fatal Thursday afternoon than a clear thinker. For in talks with him, he is constantly at a loss for words as to how to explain this lack of spirit on the part of the University students.

But as he said, the morale of the team and all the moral encouragement it needs will be built from the inside. Demonstrations such as the one he saw hurt the team more than it helped them. And on the basis of the two games the team has won, it seems that Stahley has succeeded in building up all the fight the team has from the inside.

One player came over to me after the Kings Point game and said, "Well, we won in spite of the student body."

Any student at the University who doesn't feel ashamed of himself for the lack of spirit shown towards the football team now, will certainly feel that way after watching them perform.

It's a rough, tough, fighting ball club, those guys out on the field, and they'll prove it Saturday. All they want is for the students to come out and see for themselves.

Hoopsters In Initial Practices

Record Turnout Of 52 Candidates Led by Veterans

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

A RECORD-BREAKING TURNOUT of fifty-two candidates greeted coach Otto Zahn as the initial basketball practice of the season was called last Wednesday.

With ten lettermen returning, Colonial basketball hopes are high. Back from the championship '43 team, which won the Southern Conference tournament, are guards Jim Rausch and Bob Jackson and center Don McNary. Returning from last year's team, which gained the Conference tournament, are forwards Bernie Wolf, Bill Tinklenburg, and Ralph O'Brien, guards Mo Schulman and Joe Giovacchini, and center Barry Kreisberg.

Two newcomers highlighted the record turnout. Bill Cantwell, former Hampden Sydney forward, voted the most valuable player in the state of Virginia, and Jerry "Yuss" Gasper, clever defensive ball handler, selected as an all-Jersey guard in his last year of high school. Gasper has been acclaimed by many as one of the finest guards ever to come out of New Jersey.

A bumper crop of talented local lads are also striving for starting positions. These include Bob Lammon of Eastern, Sleepy Thompson of St. Johns, Bernie Crimmins of Bethesda, Bunny Citrenbaum of Roosevelt, Julian Stein of Wilson, and Larry Bibb of George Washington High in Alexandria.

Tallest candidates on the squad are Hal Nutman and Don McNary, each towering 6'6". In general, however, the team will have to rely on agility rather than height, for as yet no George Mikan or Bob Kurlands have appeared.

Coach Zahn emphatically stated that berths on the team are wide open, and everyone will be given a fair trial.

Although deeply satisfied with the huge turnout, the coach has nevertheless refused to comment on the possibilities of the team. "It is too early in the season to size up our potentialities," he stated.

Director of Athletics Max Farrington has promised a top-notch schedule which should be completed within the next several days. The schedule is to be anything but a "soft-touch," and the Buff and Blue basketballers are in for a very busy season.

Entries Wanted

REGISTRATION IS NOW open for basketball teams interested in competing in intramural basketball competition for the coming season, starting Nov. 5th.

All teams are requested to turn in entry blanks to the Intramural Athletic Office at 207 H St. N. W.

Be Prepared — Use The College Outline Series

On Sale At

LOWDERMILK'S

1418-20 F St., N. W.

Phone NA. 0613

G. W. STUDENTS

VISIT

ANDY FARKAS' SPORT SHOP

818 18th St., N. W.

Between H. & Eye Sts.

ME. 4441

To get your best buys at the best prices

Remember 'OLE' 44 of the Washington Redskins

Wayne U. To Test Buffmen

Tars Trampled By Powerful Line Play Of Colonials

(Continued From Page 1)

Co-captains Ed Gustafson and Carl Butkus, Hank Augiesewicz and end Frank Close, the Buff smeared play after play and their rushing of the enemy passers accounted for Rollins' low net yardage of 40.

Aggressive line play was directly responsible for both of the Colonial touchdowns. Early in the second quarter, Augiesewicz shot his small frame through the Rollins line to smear Dub Palmer on the Rollins 12-yard stripe and recover the subsequent fumble. After a smash at the line Buell faded back and threw a strike to Close in the end zone for G.W.'s first score.

A minute before the half ended, Butkus slammed into Rollins' Tim Tyler and fell on the loose pigskin when Tyler lost possession. Two passes failed but with less than 10 seconds to play Buell again pitched a strike, this time to Fullback Hank Bartelloni, who made a sensational catch on the two-yard marker and went over for the Colonials' last score. Cavallo converted for the extra point.

The second half of the game evolved itself into a knock-down, drag-out fight with the Rollins team considerably out-played but always holding when the Colonials were ready to strike paydirt.

Cavallo, Shullenbarger, and Buell continued to tear gaping holes in the Tars' line and the few times that Rollins did threaten, Shullenbarger broke their hearts with long, booming kicks.

Stahley was well-pleased with his men and was especially happy over the improvement the Colonials showed in their blocking assignments and tackling. Another note of happiness was struck in the hard running of all the G.W. backs.

Stahley is still not satisfied, however.

He is still anxious to see harder running and a little stiffer pass defense. Though Rollins completed only three passes, one for a touchdown which was called back, the pass defense is still ragged, but five days of practice have sharpened the Colonials to a fine point.

But, as Stahley said after his team walked off the field Friday night, "There's another one they can't take away from us."

Rooters Organize

A ROOTER'S CLUB, which will form an organized nucleus of students for cheering, will be organized today in the gym from 7 to 9 p.m. Everyone interested in joining the club is urged to attend the meeting, if only long enough to leave his or her name. The organization will be autonomous, electing its own officers. Members of the club will be seated in a special cheering section at games, in front seats on the 50-yard line, and will be given megaphones, which they may keep at the end of the season.

Officials Needed

THERE IS STILL a serious shortage of referees and linesmen to officiate at the intramural football games. Joe Krupa, Director of Intramural Athletics, has issued an appeal for all men who are able to do this type of work. They are urged to contact him in his office at 207 H Street, N. W.

At present, the success of the intramural program depends greatly on the number of good officials that Krupa can round up. All men acting as officials will receive credit for an activity.

Housing Available

A FEW ROOMS are available for male veteran students at the former SPAR Barracks, 9th and Independence Avenue, Jim Stribling announces.

Since she donned...

Judy Bond

JUDY BOND BLOUSES ARE SOLD AT BETTER STORES EVERYWHERE

Free booklet: "WARDROBE TRICKS". Write Judy Bond, Inc., Dept. D, 1375 S'way, N. Y. 10

Independents Open Intramural Season

Frats Week Ahead As Loop Favorites Lead Grid League

• INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL swings into full stride this Sunday as eight independent teams take the field. Following the opening of fraternity play by a week, the Independents will exchange punts beginning at 10 a.m. Four lively battles are promised.

The Fraternities swung into action last Sunday, with two elevens labeling themselves as the teams to beat.

Featured by a strong aerial attack, and spearheaded by the outstanding play of Donahue, Brugioni and Giovacchini, Theta Delta Chi's all-university champs coasted to an impressive 31-0 victory over a game Acacia squad. Shining on defense, the champs played the entire game in their opponent's territory, and from the opening gun there was never any doubt as to the outcome of the game.

In the other lopsided game of the day, Dick Stedman scored two of the four Kappa Alpha touchdowns as his team romped to an easy 26-0 victory over a game Tau Kappa Epsilon team.

In a real thriller, Phi Alpha nosed out Pi Kappa Alpha 6-3. The game was highlighted by a sensational 72-yard pass play, Kolker to Kaiser.

An outplayed Sigma Nu eleven capitalized on a break to defeat the Argonauts 6-0. The lone score came on an intercepted pass. Back Dave Dupre grabbed the ball and ran 35 yards for the only tally.

The scoreless ties featured opening day festivities. A strong Sigma Chi team came out on top of Kappa Sigma by virtue of a lone first down. Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Phi Sigma Kappa wound up all even after forty grueling minutes.

Schedule for Sunday, October 20.

10 A. M.

Argonauts vs. Kappa Alpha
Theta Delta Chi vs. SAE
Sigma Nu vs. Phi Alpha
Veterans Club vs. Neokabal

11 A. M.

Acacia vs. Sigma Chi
Tekes vs. Pi KA
Phi Sig vs. Kappa Sig

1:00 p. m.

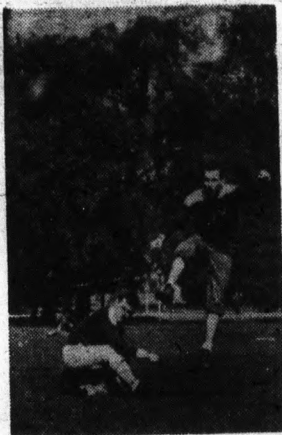

Bohemians vs. Draper Balls
Bernardites vs. Dodgers
Back Booth vs. Med. School

Girls Open Tennis

• ALL INTERESTED GIRLS are urged to sign up immediately for the annual singles women's tennis tournament. Calva Kephart, tennis manager of the W.A.A., has announced. Lists are posted in Recreation Hall as well as in Building H and entrants should sign up by Thursday, October 17. Draw sheets and the time of tournament will be posted on October 18. This tournament is open to all University women.

Gym Open Hours

• Since many students have requested the use of University facilities for personal workouts, the Intramurals department has arranged to have the gym open Mondays, Wednesday, and Fridays from 8 to 10 p. m.; Tuesday and Thursdays from 6:30 p. m. until 10 p. m.; and Saturdays from 3 p. m. till 5 p. m.

Streiter, TDX, Kicks

Colonial Foes Take Breathers; Wayne Loses to Reserve

• COLONIAL FOOTBALL opponents took breathers last week. The Citadel had an open date, and Rutgers and William and Mary might just as well have had one too. The Indians coasted to a 49-0 victory over Virginia Tech. It was the third win for the Virginians in four starts.

Rutgers had little difficulty in disposing of N. Y. U. 26-0. The victory gave the Scarlet a season record of two wins and one loss.

Georgetown came to life to defeat Fordham by the most unusual score of 8-7. The Hoyas show promise of becoming quite a ball club.

Wayne University went down to its second defeat of the season at the hands of Western Reserve 7-0. The Wayne gridders will be gunning for G. W. this Saturday, for a victory will enable them to square their season mark at 2 and 2.

Swimming Team Begins Workout

• RETURNING TO VARSITY swim competition after a prolonged absence, George Washington is going all-out in an effort to snare the Southern Conference title.

Max Farrington, Dean of Men, has pledged his wholehearted support to Coach Bob Duncan.

According to Acting Manager Paul Zipser, the prospective tankmen showed much promise in a pre-season workout. However, there is still a shortage of breaststrokes, backstrokes, and divers. Men seeking varsity berths are urged to report to Coach Duncan at 2027 H St., N. W.

An interesting schedule has been arranged, with such powers as Navy and Virginia included on the card.

COLONIAL'S HOBBIEISTS

meet at

NATIONAL PHOTO

1909 Eye St.

Wolfpack Way Out In Front

State Threatening Runaway; Deacons, Indians Powerful

North Carolina State, playing its first breather of the season, breezed to an easy 25-0 win over little Davidson College to maintain its firm grip on first place in the Southern Conference standings. The victory was the Wolfpack's third consecutive conference win.

William and Mary's Indians broke loose with a burst of offensive power in Cary Stadium to defeat the Virginia Tech Gobblers 49-0, before a stunned crowd of 15,000 spectators. Led by little Tommy Korczowski, 165-pound ex-flyer from Hopelawn, N. J., the Indians pulled into second place in the conference race.

Life became more miserable for Clark Shaughnessy as he watched his Maryland Terrapins humiliated by North Carolina 33-0. The loss shoved the Old Liners, together with Clemson, into the loop cellar.

South Carolina encountered unexpected opposition from Furman. The Gamecocks were only too glad to settle for a 14-7 victory.

Wake Forest's undefeated Deacons made their conference debut as they romped over Clemson 19-7. George Washington and North Carolina are the only other members of the sixteen-team Southern Conference who have yet to be defeated or tied.

Conference Football Standings

	W	L	T
North Carolina State	3	0	0
William and Mary	2	0	0
South Carolina	1	0	0
Wake Forest	1	0	0
North Carolina	1	0	1
Richmond	1	0	1
Virginia Military	0	0	1
George Washington	0	0	0
Washington and Lee	0	0	0
Virginia Tech	0	1	1
Duke	0	1	0
Furman	0	1	0
The Citadel	0	1	0
Davidson	0	1	0
Clemson	0	2	0
Maryland	0	2	0

Join

The Hatchet Staff Now!

Seymour RICH'S

"E" at 19th St. N.W.
Your Neighborhood Restaurant
Continental Cuisine
(Famous for Blintzes)
Sandwiches and Lunches
Daily 11 AM to 3:30 PM
Table D'Hote Dinners
Daily 4:30 PM to 9:30 PM
Sunday Dinner 2 PM to 9 PM
Music by Muzak

Colonials To Remember

Newman Meeting

• BECAUSE OF THE large number of students who have expressed their intention of attending the Newman Club Welcome Party and social evening, the place of meeting has been changed. Originally slated for the Columbian House, the meeting will take place at Saint Stephen's Hall, 24th & K Sts., N. W. The time will remain at 8 p.m., as scheduled. The overflow has been caused by the preponderant number of Catholics at the University this year. The Religious Council has announced that Catholics have the greatest representation of any religious denomination on the campus. Newman Club officers have given as their best calculation a total of 1260 Catholic students.

The initiation and first dance of the semester will take place at Carroll Hall, 10th & G Sts., N. W., this coming Sunday, October 20th.

Auxiliary Forms

• ANNOUNCEMENT was made last week of the formation of an auxiliary to the George Washington Chapter of the American Veterans Committee, to be known as the American Veterans Committee Associates. The new organization will follow the policies set forth by the A.V.C., which essentially consists of a progressive platform aimed at improving the general lot of citizens, both veteran and non-veteran. Membership is open to all non-veteran students, male and female.

Fur Coat For Sale

Beautiful and flattering Mouton Lamb coat. Fingertip length. Size 16.

$79.50

EM. 3593

SPALDING

IN BIG-TIME BASKETBALL

... AND THE RECORD CROWD TO SEE A GAME IS 23,000... AT PEIPING, CHINA IN 1935

THE FAMOUS SPALDING LAST-BIT BASKET BALL... FIRST WITH COACHES AND PLAYERS ALIKE

SPALDING

SETS THE PACE IN SPORTS

CUE AND CURTAIN

The George Washington University

Presents

The 1946-47 Season of Four Plays

Blithe Spirit by Noel Coward	Oct. 23, 24, 25, 26, 1946
Winterset by Maxwell Anderson	Dec. 11, 12, 13, 14, 1946
Our Annual Musical Production	Mar. 5, 6, 7, 8, 1947
Our Annual Shakespearean Drama	Apr. 16, 17, 18, 19, 1947

By subscribing for the season now you are assured of your seat for every production. The season price gives you all four for the price of three—Orchestra Section, $5.40; Orchestra Circle Section, $3.60. We play each show on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights, at 8:40 p.m. in the Lisner Auditorium at 21st and H Streets, N. W.

Season subscriptions on sale in the student club or by mail. Make checks and money orders payable to Cue and Curtain, The George Washington University Lisner Auditorium, 21st and H Streets, N. W., Washington 6, D. C.

Color to Figure In Treatment At New Hospital

• THE USE OF color as well as art in modern hospital science is fast becoming a reality these days. This will definitely be the case with the interior design of the University's new hospital now under construction at Washington Circle. Thus said Waldron Faulkner, Washington architect, and member of the firm of Faulkner, Kingsbury and Stenhouse, at a recent interview given him by Nancy Osgood of Radio Station WRC.

Mr. Faulkner is largely responsible for the design of the new hospital and stated to the radio audience that the use of color is emerging as a major factor in aiding the sick. Each room will have an original color scheme. "Colors," said Designer Faulkner, "will influence the emotions of the patient as well as the mental attitudes."

There is a definite tendency to drift away from the drab, almost, depressing "hospital white" found in most existing hospitals, said Faulkner. He pointed out that it has been proved that the staff efficiency is increased and the morale of both the patients and the hospital staff is increased tremendously.

Towle to Display Silver at Strong

• A SILVER STUDY, sponsored by Mortar Board, will be given from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., on Friday, October 18 in the Strong Hall lounge, Lois Lord, president, has announced.

The Towle Silver Company will display different patterns in silverware at this time. This collection will also include several new patterns that haven't been put on the market yet. By asking the girls to choose the patterns they like best, the company can determine which are the most popular patterns with coeds.

Though admission is free, this project is part of a money making program. The Towle Company pays Mortar Board for the number of girls that attend the Silver Study so it is urged that any interested girls attend. In the past the study has proved a success on this as well as other university campuses, Miss Lord stated.

Graduation

(Continued From Page 1)

Frances Pearson, Wallace N. Phelps, Doris Mae Power, Dorothy Phyllis Primm, Rennie G. Quibble, Jesse E. Ridgeway, Eleanor Robb, James Ward Russell, John W. Rutherford, John Torsten Sandlund, Robert J. Segal, Wanda H. Shea, Arthur T. Sonnenberg, Barbara Stellwagen, John Stephens, Alice Louise Stevenson, Charles T. Stewart, Jr., Margaret June Torrey, Bertha Elizabeth Van Geldren, Howard G. Walkingstick, Rosalie Ann Whyte, Mary Margaret Wilbar (with distinction), Margaret Incretia Williams, Edith Stephens Woodward (with distinction).

Bachelor of Science

Robert David Misner, Elliott Dayton Osgood, Helen Dorothy Park, Eugene Debs Robin, Dorothy Anne Washington.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Education
Bernice G. Jones, Sarah B. Muchnick, Helen F. Walsh, Hazel I. Oldaker.

Bachelor of Science in Physical Education

Ralph J. Maters.
Master of Arts in Education
Mary J. Adamkiewicz, Ronald H. East, Daniel F. Bledsoe, Byron M. Cochran, Evelyn H. Diamond, Phyllis M. Edwards, Leone P. Forkner, Robert W. Foster, Mary F. Giovannetti, Ruth E. Helm, Jessie M. Johnson, Lena Margaret William S. Rumbough.

SCHOOL OF GOVERNMENT

Master of Arts
Paul of Kattenberg, Jose D. Leonardo, Robert L. Peterson, Joseph N. Stoner.

Bachelor of Arts

Frances L. Barnes, William B. Beebe, Edward N. DeTrotas, Sam G. Dowdy, Wilson C. Duprey, Harold R. Evans, Norman H. Friend, Bernard H. Kahn, Nicholas S. Lakas, Jack Leonard, Thomas R. McMullen, Frank D. Nichols, John Raymond, Ruth Rose, Anne P. Sabo.

Bachelor of Science in Secretarial Administration

Wanita Gardner, Geraldine M. Stull, Mary M. Vicars.

SCHOOL OF LAW

Master of Laws
Donald MacKelvey Patterson, Elwood Harlan Olsen.

Juris Doctor

Robert Goodwin Irish, Charles Paul Olson.

Bachelor of Laws

Chester W. Collier, Virginia Lee Dalton, James Campbell Davidson, James Edwin Edwards, Marie Gertrude Garrett, Charles Edwin Hinsdale, Wilma Jane Jacobi, Fred Wesley King, Robert Frederick Knapp, Robert Holt Myers, Alvin LeRoy Newmyer, Anne Peterson, Philip Edward Hunter Rich, Alfred Long Scanlan, Martha Frances Snyder, Joseph Ben Sparkman, Laura May Stanley, Ralph Stela, Harrell Taylor Vance, William Brown Zachary, Jr.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

Bachelor of Science in Engineering
Thomas W. Hendrick.

Bachelor of Civil Engineering

Haaren Albert Miklofsky.
SCHOOL OF PHARMACY
Sister M. Raphael Devane, Sister M. Jane Francis Heaton.

TRIPLE SMOKING PLEASURE

ALWAYS Milder

BETTER TASTING

COOLER SMOKING

—You hit it again, Stan...THEY SATISFY!

ALWAYS BUY CHESTERFIELD
ALL OVER AMERICA—CHESTERFIELD IS TOPS!

Copyright 1946, Lorrey & Mena Tobacco Co.